Explain how this trip is specifically connected to the traveler's official or representational duties:

This is an educational conference for congressional staffers. The conference includes lectures and panels discussing topics such as upcoming legislation, the intersection of the legislative and executive branches, and public messaging strategies. These topics are relevant to my specific duties as a legislative assistant for Senator Lee. One of the conference sessions will focus on the Trump administration's plans to reorganize the executive branch. As Senator Lee's energy and natural resources staffer, I am responsible for updating him on the administration's efforts to reorganize the energy and interior departments.

Name of accompanying family member (if any): _____

Relationship to Employee: ☐ Spouse ☐ Child

Dear Heath,

This letter is a follow up to the initial email invitation you received to attend our 2018 Feulner and Weyrich Fellowship Conference. The event will be held August 8 – August 9 in Cambridge, MD.

The conference will focus on topics and issues not covered in our weekly lunches, including policy issues the 115th Congress still faces as it winds down. The conference will also feature some of the brightest policy minds and most effective leaders in the conservative movement.

In order to attend, it is required that you submit your travel paperwork to Ethics AND register for the event. Below are the steps, and I attached the pre-travel sponsor forms.

Step 1: Submit travel forms to Ethics BY FRIDAY, JULY 6. House and Senate Ethics forms are attached to this email. If you have any questions at all, feel free to reach out to myself or Alexa Legas at alexa.legas@heritage.org.

House staffers:

1. Pre-travel Sponsor Form (attached)
2. Traveler Form

Senate staffers:

1. Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form (attached)
2. Employee Pre-Travel Authorization

Step 2: Register for the retreat with our Events Team through this link: <https://events.heritage.org/FeulnerWeyrich>

Sincerely,

Thomas Binion

11:30 – 12:00 p.m.	REGISTRATION
12:00 – 1:30 p.m.	WORKING LUNCHEON – THE FIRST AMENDMENT, FREE SPEECH AND COLLEGE CAMPUSES: WHAT’S AT STAKE?

One of the most important issues facing our lawmakers today is the exercise of free speech. Arthur will walk fellows through the meaning of the First Amendment, the importance of free speech, the effects of free speech laws in other countries, and certain proposals in the United States. This lecture will equip attendees to assess the public policy benefits of free speech proposals.

The Heritage Foundation*

5:30 – 6:30 p.m. GROUP EXERCISE PREP WORK
Each year the Feulner-Weyrich fellows conduct a landmark and relevant full-scale live exercise that replicates real life conditions. In the first year, the fellows simulated the first 100 days of a new President. Last year, the fellows simulated a legislative negotiation. This year, the fellowship class will simulate the confirmation process of a Supreme Court Justice.

In this session, Hans will go over the history of Senate confirmation of Supreme Court nominees, the Constitutional authority for confirmation, and modern day practices.

*Senior Legal Fellow, Meese Center for Legal and Judicial Studies
The Heritage Foundation*

7:00 – 8:30 p.m. DINNER WITH KEYNOTE ADDRESS

“Courageous leadership in trying times.” 60 minutes

8:30 a.m. Attendees leave room keys and luggage at the Heritage luggage check

9:00 – 10:00 a.m. BREAKFAST SESSION – THE INTERSECTION OF THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCH AND EXECUTIVE BRANCH

As laid out in the Constitution the Legislative Branch has an important role to play in the Executive Branch. This session looks at that role through the lens of the recently announced Executive Order on Re-organization. Our speaker will discuss modern practice for collaboration between the two branches as well as the execution of constitutional checks and balances between the two branches.

Paul Teller
Special Assistant to the President
Office of President Donald Trump

10:00 – 12:30 p.m. GROUP EXERCISE: SCOTUS SIMULATION

Each participant will play the role of an active Senator participating in a confirmation process. Each participant will be given notes on his or her specific interests in the confirmation process, and after meeting with the “nominee” and the other Senators, will decide if he or she will vote to confirm the justice.

12:30 – 12:45 p.m. CLOSING REMARKS

Recap of the lessons of the conference and how they apply to the official duties of the participants.
